Names are very important. They are one of the ways we identify someone. For example, you have a first and last name so we know exactly who you are. Your name was probably picked because it had a special meaning to your mom and dad.

The names of Jesus are also important. His name was Jesus of Nazareth.

You probably go by many other names too. You may also be called brother or sister, daughter or son. You may even have a nickname that describes something about you. Your family may call you angel, buddy or sweetie.

Jesus had these names too. Since we are in God's family, we have special names for Jesus.

When Jesus was born, his mother named him Jesus. The name Jesus means Savior.

Another one of the names Jesus was called was Immanuel, which means "God is with us."

The disciple John called Jesus "the Word." He wrote, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was fully God."

This is because Jesus was with God in the very beginning.

Jesus was called the "Light of the World" because he brought light to a dark world.

He brought hope to the hopeless, and healing to the sick. He demonstrated that he had the power to overcome all kinds of illness and suffering in this world.

Jesus calls himself the "Good Shepherd," because he came to gather all the lost sheep and lead them back to God.

He is also called the Lamb of God because he would eventually be the final sacrifice for all people.

Jesus is called the Prince of Peace because he came to restore peace to the world.

The prophet Isaiah called Jesus the Redeemer, because he would come to redeem (or make things right) between God and man.

One of the most important names we can call Jesus is Savior.

His sacrifice is what makes it possible for us to have the hope of heaven. His life is the fulfillment of the promise God made thousands of years ago.
